MISS RUTH MCCHESNEY, whose portrait appears above, is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McChesney. She has been on the mainland for the past year and returned to Honolulu in the Mongolia yesterday. Miss McChesney was a member of the class of 1910 of Oahu College and one of the most popular members of the younger set. She is a member of the Minute Club and its members gave her a hearty welcome upon her return. She is an exceedingly attractive young girl of a beautiful blonde type.

What would society say to a Society Circus in Honolulu? The Smart Set here is forever doing something for the alleviation of some kind of suffering and fun is raised in various ways. Wouldn't a Society Circus be far more interesting than a tag-day or a fair? Both of these are getting rather common and even the taggers have lost interest, while the tagged threaten to take to cover at the first danger signal.

All San Francisco society is preparing for the circus for the Infant Shelter Home. So far no benefit has been given here for that purpose, but there are infants who might be sheltered and there are any number of other needs for which such an affair might be given. The work just now is the selling of California stamps for the tuberculosis campaign and people are buying the stamps for the cause and not for their heavy for no Christmas package would be made more beautiful if adorned with one of them.

There are any number of society women here who are talented in many ways. Some sing, others are splendid horsewomen, and still others are accomplished equestrians. And as for the men, many of them are said to be clowning in every day life and would not necessarily have to have any make-up.

shall bring to the hostess, for the occasion, some edible. The manner of entertainment varies. This time Mrs. Warren chose a cafeteria supper. Partners for the evening were chosen by matching names. Each of the ladies was presented with an envelope containing a name, and the men chose from a placard a name such as "Eve," "Juliet," etc., and then entertained during the evening the lady whose envelope contained that name.

Each of the couples was numbered and entered the dining room. Couple No. 1 entered first and after receiving a plate were served from the lunch counter and then took their places at the tables. In the dining room were placards such as one sees—or doesn't see—at a restaurant: "No Smoking Allowed," "Don't Trip the Waitress," etc. The table was prettily decorated with brown baskets filled with red Christmas berries and advertisements and pay bills containing jokes on the guests were scattered upon the cloth.

After the dinner the guests danced the Virginia reel and other dances. Among those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Vida Thrum, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heiser, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark, Dr. and Mrs. Bicknell, Miss Maxwell, Miss Susan Clark, Miss Margaret Clark, Miss Caldwell, Miss Boogie, Mr. and Mrs. John Trenholm Warren and others.

With the departure of the transport on Thursday went Lieutenant Harry Vaughan of the Coast Artillery at Fort Ruger. Lieutenant Vaughan has been stationed in Honolulu for more than three years and has become one of the most popular young officers in the service set. A large aggregation of his friends and fellow officers were at the dock to bid him a farewell.

Mrs. E. J. Timberlake Entertains.

Decidedly the most brilliant function of the week was the reception given by Mrs. E. J. Timberlake Tuesday afternoon, for Mrs. Edward Carpenter who has recently arrived at Fort Ruger. The affair was the first of the functions given by Mrs. Timberlake since she has moved into her new quarters and was in the nature of a housewarming.

The reception room where Mrs. Timberlake and Mrs. Carpenter received the many ladies who called during the afternoon was decorated with exquisite pink roses and orchids.

The color scheme for the decorations in the tea room where Mrs. Walter F. Frear and Mrs. E. M. Swanny presided over the refreshment table was yellow, and lovely chrysanthemums and ferns adorned the table and the lanai. The hallway and staircase where the guests entered were bowered of red bougainvillea. The bannister was almost hidden by the vines while vases filled with it were arranged in the hall.

These decorations were arranged by the ladies of the Post, who later assisted Mrs. Timberlake.

Red predominated in the lanai where punch was served and masses of red avaras, roses and carnations graced the tables and stands. Here Mrs. Herbert Dowsett and Mrs. Humbert served the delicious beverage.

Among those who assisted Mrs. Timberlake during the afternoon were, Mrs. Walter F. Frear, Mrs. E. M. Swanny, Mrs. Johnstone, Mr. Clark, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Humbert.

During the afternoon sweet Hawaiian melodies were played by Kaali's quintet club.

The guests included, Mrs. Frear, Princess Kawanakoa, Mrs. E. M. Swanny, Mrs. Robbins B. Anderson, Mrs. G. H. Angus, Mrs. Anceus, Mrs. J. M. Ballou, Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Mrs. A. M. Brown, Mrs. R. J. Club To Make Bow At Dance.

The unwonted quiet that has for some weeks prevailed among the young society folk will have a delightful break tonight when the Hui Maka Ala, a social club recently formed by a number of young bachelors of Honolulu will make its initial bow with a dance at the Myrtle Boat House. The committee having the affair in charge is sparing no effort in their desire to make this one of the thoroughly enjoyable functions of the season.

Some years ago there was a similar organization and the members and their friends have pleasant recollections of the many enjoyable functions given at the Myrtle Boat House and elsewhere.

The young men who have taken the initiative and formed this latest club that has already planned a number of entertainments for the coming season are: Mr. A. P. Koller, Mr. Frank Bechert, Mr. Arthur Gay, Mr. C. J. Sullivan, Mr. W. F. Gaynor, Mr. David Center, Mr. Charles Littlejohn, Mr. Fred Zeigler, Mr. William Rosa, Mr. Alie Magoon, Mr. Edward Stacker and Mr. Duke Kahanamoku, Jr.

The chaperones who have been invited for tonight are the mothers of some of the fairer guests.

Prominent Clubwoman Here.

Mrs. Alice A. H. Grawn, of Grand Rapids, Mich., a member of the L. L. C. and who was sent as a delegate to the National biennial convention, held in San Francisco from June 25 to July 5, 1912, is in Honolulu for the winter. She hopes to gather much data in her study of the islands. Much of her life has been devoted to club work.

Mrs. A. G. Hawes' Dinner Party.

Mrs. A. G. Hawes Jr. entertained a number of friends at dinner on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane entertained at an enjoyable dance Tuesday evening at their new home on Pensacola street.

Mr. Thurston Taylor Entertains.

A number of the members of the younger set were entertained by Mr. Thurston Taylor last evening in Nuanu. The lanai, where the young people were entertained during the evening, was prettily decorated with palms, ferns and poinsettia, while potted orchids and roses were arranged in the house.

The first part of the evening was devoted to the guessing game "Penny for your thoughts" and the prizes were given to Mr. Platt Cooke, Miss Mary Smith and Miss Ynez Gibson. During the latter part of the evening the young people played casino and the prizes were given to Mr. Platt Cooke, Miss Florence Ballou and Miss Mary Smith, who received the consolation.

Miss Ballou was given a souvenir spoon and Mr. Cooke a pin tray. Just before the refreshments were served a number of friends of Mr. Taylor called. Among those present were Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Gertrude Ripley, Miss Ruth Farrington, Miss Florence Ballou, Miss Elsie Lidgate, Miss Dora Lidgate, Miss Mary Benton, Miss Mary Smith, Miss Katie Singlehurst, Miss Katherine Paris, Miss Eleanor Gartley, Miss Ynez Gibson, Mr. Willard Ables, Mr. Ralph Gidder, Mr. Gordon Brown, Mr. Donald Brown, Mr. Gordon Wakefield, Mr. Stanley Mott-Smith, Mr. Ernest Mott-Smith, Mr. George Bromley, Mr. Herbert Cullen, Mr. Joseph Farrington, Mr. Woods Peters, Mr. Platt Cooke, Mr. Frank Winter, Mr. Roy Graham and the host.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane Entertain.

One of the thoroughly enjoyable affairs of the week was the dance at which Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane entertained on Tuesday evening.

The color scheme for the decorations was red, and was carried out with red carnations. Huge jardinières of the brilliant flowers were arranged throughout the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Macfarlane's guests included the Princess Kawanakoa, Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Judge and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Judge and Mrs. Robert W. Shingle, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Beckley, Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Abong, Mr. and Mrs. J.
